What is the Initiative?

The goal of the Work Initiative Project is to increase employment opportunities for people with developmental disabilities who live in Orange County, CA.

In the last 23 years, thousands of employers have successfully hired people with developmental disabilities in our community in a diverse array of jobs.

In order to continue developing partnerships and promote employment opportunities with Orange County businesses, the Regional Center of Orange County needs your assistance.

Why hire people with Developmental Disabilities?

- High quality work performance
 - Professional services to assist with hiring
 - Training
 - Reduced recruiting costs
 - Excellent attendance
 - Diversified workforce
 - Higher retention rates
 - Possible tax credits and reduced turnover
 - No increase in safety risk or insurance costs
- ... and there are several additional benefits for hiring people from this competent and reliable labor source!
